I acknowledge and understand that engaging in an equine activity is an inherent risk and am aware that there are dangers and conditions, which are an integral part of an equine activity. Therefore, under RSA 508:19 of the New Hampshire Equine Activity Statute, the Farm, its agents, assigns, successors, officers, directors or employees "shall not be liable for the injury or the death of a participant resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities, and no participant or participant's representative shall make any claim against, maintain an action against, or recover from any other person for injury, loss, damage or death of a participant resulting from any of the inherent risks of equine activities. Each participant shall have the sole responsibility for knowing the range of his/her ability to manage, care for, and control a particular equine or perform a particular equine activity, and it shall be the duty of each participant to act within the limits of the participant's own ability, to maintain reasonable control of the particular equine at all times while participating in an equine activity, to heed all posted warnings, and to refrain from acting in a manner which may cause or contribute to the injury of any person."
