Fall Riding is Here!

Congratulations for making it through the summer monsoons! We love most New Hampshire weather - Fall riding makes it all worth it!

The rains have helped grow our hearty rock crop again this year. While you are enjoying the lovely fall foliage, feel free to throw the rocks off the trails, or bring them home and paint them for fun trail markers!

Please pay special attention to the reverse for some important rate changes. Your newsletter writer apologizes for the late issue! Life (and horses!) had me in more directions than I could juggle the last few weeks. 😊

Please see the back for the master calendar. There have been small updates for several of the categories.

Our final official IMTCA recognized Challenge is coming in a few weeks! Join us October 16 on the course. Please remember that all entries MUST be made by Friday 10/15 at noon. Registration is not available the day of the event. The class list and course patterns are posted on Mountainlanefarm.com under the FORMS section.

Our second IMTCA Challenge was in August and was a great success! We again had teams coming from all over New England and New York. It is such a pleasure to watch many of you come to the Play Days for course practice and see the results of that practice at the Challenges!

Please join us November 6 from 10 – 1 for a Free Play Day to wrap up our Mountain Trail Challenge Series. Course will be open for all to enjoy. We will announce our year end awards at noon!

See you on the course!!
